

3rd International Scientific Symposium "Sense. Enable. SPITSE." 2016 National Research University "MPEI", Moscow – Smolensk, Russia 20 June – 01 July 2016

ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

- ✓ The International Scientific Symposium "Sense. Enable. SPITSE." is the main annual event of the DAAD-supported Strategic Partnership of Ilmenau University of Technology (Germany), St. Petersburg Electrotechnical University "LETI" (Russia) and the National Research University "Moscow Power Engineering Institute" (Russia).
- ✓ The third Symposium is organized in Moscow and Smolensk.
- ✓ The Symposium combines a Scientific Conference (20 – 24 June 2016) and a Summer School for young researchers (27 June – 01 July 2016).
- ✓ No registration fee is applied.

LANGUAGE

The official language of the Symposium is English.

CONFERENCE TOPICS (Electrical Engineering, Computer Sciences and Computer Engineering) include but not limited to:

1. Novel technologies for RF, microwave, and optical sensors and devices
2. Antennas for RF and microwave sensing
3. Energy efficient frontends, wireless power transfer
4. Smart sensors, sensor signal acquisition, HW/SW co-design
5. Biomedical diagnostics
6. Wireless devices and strategies for intelligent traffic systems (ITS)
7. Nonlinear dynamic system modeling, analog and digital signal processing, dirty RF
8. Wireless sensor networks, network security
9. Data fusion and data mining
10. Embedded software engineering

IMPORTANT DATES

- ✓ Deadline for paper submission – 25 April 2016
- ✓ Paper acceptance notification – 15 May 2016
- ✓ Deadline for Summer School registration – 15 May 2016

PAPER SUBMISSION
